PERSONAL STATEMENT

Through my variety of work, I always bring a dedicated, optimistic and collaborative mindset, irrespective of the task.

Coming from a background of architecture and hospitality work, I'm well adjusted to working with others to tight deadlines and high standards, often involving high-budgets; e.g. weddings, public events, private residence design etc.

Through my experience I have grown a care for the people I work with / the working environment equal to the care I have for ensuring the 'end product' is up to expectations, if not better.
